Ch. 62:01.

“petroleum” means any mixture of naturally occurring hydrocarbons and hydrocarbon compounds.

3. (1) The President may, by Order, prescribe areas in which a free zone may not be designated.

Designation of free zones. [33 of 1995 4 of 1997].

(2) The Minister may, by Order, on the recommendation of the Company designate an area a free zone, and the limits of the free zone shall be defined in the Order.

(3) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Company, amend the Order made under subsection (2).

(4) No area shall be designated a free zone under this section except with the consent of the owners, and anyone having a registered interest in the property.

(5) The Company shall cause a copy of any Order made under this section to be delivered, as soon as possible after its publication in the Gazette, to the Registrar General, who shall maintain a register of such Orders.

(6) The Registrar General shall be notified of any amendment to an Order under this section and all amendments shall be recorded on the register.

(7) An Order made under subsection (2), may take effect at any time within a period of ninety days prior to the effective date of the Order.

Approved activities. First Schedule. [33 of 1995].

4. (1) The activities specified in Part I of the First Schedule, shall be approved activities for the purposes of this Act.

(2) An activity specified in Part II of the First Schedule shall not qualify as an approved activity but may be carried on in a free zone.

(3) The Minister may by Order amend the First Schedule.

PART II

FUNCTIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMPANY

Board of Directors.

5. The Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as "the Board").

Functions of the Company. [33 of 1995].

6. (1) The Company shall—

(a) administer, control, operate and manage all free zones and any other property which may from time to time be vested in it under this Act;

(b) provide and maintain such services, facilities and structures as are in its opinion necessary or desirable for the efficient operation of any free zone;

(c) have authority over all goods deposited or manufactured in a free zone for the purpose of exercising its functions under this Act, subject to any restrictions which may be imposed by the Comptroller under the Customs Act;

(d) permit Customs offices to be established in any free zone and provide facilities for this purpose;

Ch. 78:01.

- (e) authorise with the approval of the Minister a company incorporated or registered in Trinidad and Tobago to carry out the operations, activities or negotiations specified in paragraphs (a) and (d);
- (f) supervise, control and prescribe conditions for the movement of persons, conveyances, vessels and goods, into, in, and out of the free zones;
- (g) approve and regulate activities which may be carried on in a free zone; and
- (h) take all necessary steps to ensure that the terms of service and working conditions in any approved enterprise do not fall below minimum accepted standards in Trinidad and Tobago for such class of enterprise.

(2) In the exercise of its functions under this Act, the Company may—

- (a) construct, maintain and operate warehouses, factories, commercial buildings, offices, freight sheds, docking facilities, loading and unloading berths, landings for loading and unloading operations, storage facilities or workshops, ports, piers, shipyards, or other structures for the use of itself or other persons and may grant contracts or concessions to other persons for the construction or provision of any of the said facilities;
- (b) sell, rent, grant leases, sub-leases or other interests or concessions in respect of land, buildings or any other facility or structure within a free zone owned by, or under the control of, the Company on such terms and conditions and subject to the payment of such price, rental or other consideration as the Company may think fit;
- (c) subject to section 16, approve any company, corporation, firm or individual as an approved enterprise on such terms and conditions and subject to the payment of such fees, charges and other consideration as the Company may think fit;

- (d) import, store, exhibit, pack, unpack, re-pack, manufacture, assemble, refine, purify, mix, transform, operate, re-ship (whether by sea or air), and manipulate all kinds of merchandise, products, raw materials, containers and other commercial goods other than those goods which are prohibited for importation, storage, or manufacture in a free zone;
- (e) authorise with the approval of the Minister a company incorporated or registered in Trinidad and Tobago to carry out the operations, activities or negotiations specified in paragraphs (a) and (d);
- (f) provide water, light and power, telecommunications and any other public utilities or services and enter into contracts for the supplying of the said utilities and services;
- (g) develop industrial areas for the manufacture, processing, finishing, re-packing and trans-shipment of products;
- (h) subject to section 16, enter into joint ventures with any person for the purpose of any approved activity; and
- (i) carry on or permit to be carried on such other activities as appear to it necessary, advantageous or desirable for or in connection with the exercise and performance of its functions or the operation of a free zone.

Approved enterprise may manage a free zone.
[33 of 1995
4 of 1997].

6A. In furtherance of the functions given to the Company under section 6(1), the Company may authorise an approved enterprise to develop, operate and manage a free zone and exercise any of the functions in relation thereto detailed under section 6(2)(a), (b), (f) and (g).

7. (1) The President may, by Order, transfer to the Company, any property belonging to the State which is necessary for, or useful to the Company in carrying out its functions under this Act and such property shall vest in the Company by virtue of the Order and without further assurance.

Transfer of property.

(2) An Order made pursuant to subsection (1) shall—

- (a) specify the amount of compensation, if any, payable to the State in relation to property so transferred and the manner in which such compensation shall be paid; and
- (b) contain such incidental, consequential or supplementary provisions as are necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Order.

(3) All property vested in the Company under this Act shall be exempt from land and buildings tax.

8. The funds and resources of the Company in relation to the operation of a free zone shall comprise—

Funds and resources of the Company. [33 of 1995].

- (a) moneys derived from rentals, leases, concessions or other activities carried on in the free zones;
- (b) sums derived from loans raised by the Company in accordance with the provisions of this Act;
- (c) moneys earned by or arising from investments made by the Company in connection with the operation of the free zones;
- (d) such moneys as may from time to time be placed by Parliament at the disposal of the Company for the purposes of this Act;
- (e) fees, charges or other monies received in consideration for the grant of approval of any approved enterprise; and
- (f) such other moneys as may lawfully be paid to the Company in respect of any matter incidental to its powers and duties under this Act.

Chap. 81:07 Trinidad and Tobago Free Zones

(2) Subject to this Act, the Company may by Order grant, subject to such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, approval to an enterprise to undertake the approved activity specified in its application made under subsection (1).

(3) Every Order made under subsection (2) shall specify a date on which the relevant approved enterprise is deemed to begin that approved activity for the purposes of this Act.

(4) On the application of an approved enterprise, the Company may, upon such conditions as it thinks fit, amend the date specified in an Order made under subsection (2) and thereupon, this Act shall have effect from the date as so amended.

(5) Any person who knowingly or recklessly provides statements or makes representations that are false or deceptive in an application to the Company made under this section, is guilty of an offence.

(6) In addition to any penalty that may be incurred for an offence under this section, the Company may revoke the Order made hereunder.

Companies to be incorporated or registered locally. [33 of 1995].

16. (1) The Company shall not grant approval for any activity in a free zone —

(a) to any company other than a company incorporated or registered in Trinidad and Tobago in accordance with the Companies Act; or

(b) to any firm other than a firm registered under the Registration of Business Names Act.

Ch. 81:01.

Ch: 82:85.

(2) An approved enterprise shall notify the Company of any purchase, or transfer of shares in or by that enterprise, within fourteen days of such purchase or transfer.

Insurance business. [33 of 1995 15 of 2004].

17. (1) The Company shall not grant approval to any person to carry on insurance business in a free zone unless that person—

(a) is registered in Trinidad and Tobago in accordance with the Insurance Act; or

Ch. 84:01.

(b) if not so registered, has obtained the approval of the Central Bank in respect of the particular insurance business for which approval is sought.

(2) Any insurance company, broker, agent or sub-agent which is in compliance with the provisions of the Insurance Act may, with the approval of the Company establish a branch within a free zone for the conduct of insurance business therein. Ch. 84:01.

(3) An approval mentioned in subsection (2) shall be subject to such conditions as the Company may consider necessary.

(4) All insurance business carried on in a free zone shall be subject to any written law relating to insurance.

- (5) A person granted approval under this section shall—
- (a) keep such records in such forms containing such particulars; and
 - (b) make such reports at such times, as may be required by the Central Bank and shall permit the Inspector of Financial Institutions or any person authorised by him at all reasonable times to inspect such records and any documentation relevant thereto.

(6) Where a person conducting insurance business establishes a branch in a free zone pursuant to subsection (2), the Company shall permit the Inspector of Financial Institutions or any person authorised by him to enter that free zone for the purpose of carrying out the inspection of records mentioned in subsection (5).

(7) In this section “Inspector of Financial Institutions” has the meaning assigned to it in the Financial Institutions Act. Ch. 79:09.

17A. (Repealed by Act No. 4 of 1997).

18. (1) Subject to any absolute or specific prohibition imposed by any written law, the Company and any approved enterprise shall be entitled to import into a free zone free of Customs duty—

Third Schedule.

articles intended to be used for the purposes of, or in connection with, an approved activity including articles described in Part I of the Third Schedule; and

- (b) any of the articles specified in Part II of the Third Schedule where the Company or the approved enterprise, as the case may be, satisfies the Comptroller that such articles are imported for the construction, alteration, reconstruction, extension or repair to the infrastructure or any premises situated within a free zone and including the equipping of such premises.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), articles for equipping premises include equipment for offices and other ancillary facilities necessary for the proper administration of the premises and for the health, safety, hygiene and welfare of persons employed at such premises.

(3) The Minister may by Order amend the Third Schedule.

(4) All goods brought into a free zone shall be consigned—

- (a) to the Company or to an approved enterprise and such goods may, with the approval of the Company, be transferred from one approved enterprise to another or from the Company to an approved enterprise, or from an approved enterprise to the Company save that the goods shall be used for, or in accordance with the approved activity of the recipient approved enterprise or by the Company;

(b) without prejudice to section 29, to a bank acting on behalf of any party to a transaction involving the Company or an approved enterprise.

(5) The Company may take such steps as it deems necessary to preserve goods within a free zone, whether by moving such goods from one place to another or by storing such goods, and where any expenses are incurred by the Company in so doing, the owner or consignee of such goods shall reimburse the Company for any expenses so incurred.

(6) Subject to this Act, goods brought into a free zone pursuant to this section may—

- (a) unless otherwise directed by the Company, be stored, sold, exhibited, broken up, packed, unpacked, assembled, distributed, sorted, graded, cleaned, marked, re-marked, loaded, unloaded, reloaded, divided, mixed, separated, or otherwise manipulated;
- (b) be worked, processed or re-processed or otherwise manipulated or manufactured;
- (c) subject to any written law pertaining thereto, be destroyed; or
- (d) subject to subsections (7) and (8), be removed from a free zone or sent into the Customs territory, whether as originally packaged or otherwise.

(7) Where any goods which are dutiable on entry into the Customs territory, whether in their original condition or after manufacture or as part of or an ingredient of any goods manufactured in a free zone, are sent from a free zone into the Customs territory, such goods shall be subject to the Customs Act and, if such goods are intended to be disposed of in the Customs territory, they shall not be removed from a free zone until the Comptroller is satisfied that all import restrictions relevant thereto have been complied with and all duties and taxes payable in connection with the importation thereof into the Customs territory have been paid or security given therefor to his satisfaction. Ch. 78:01.

(8) Samples of goods may be displayed in a free zone but shall not be taken into the Customs territory without payment of or without an undertaking satisfactory to the Comptroller for the payment of the relevant duty.

(9) Subsection (8) does not apply to goods which to the satisfaction of the Comptroller are of no commercial value.

19. (1) No person shall enter, remain in or reside in any free zone without the prior permission of the Company.

Persons not to enter free zones without permission.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for six months.

Retail trade.
[33 of 1995].

20. (1) Subject to section 18(4)(a), no retail trade shall be conducted within any free zone without the prior approval in writing of the Comptroller and of the Company and any approval so granted shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Comptroller or the Company, as the case may be, may impose.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) or of any term or condition imposed pursuant to that subsection commits an offence.

21. (Repealed by Act No. 33 of 1995).

Recording, marking and inspection of articles imported with Customs duty concessions.
[33 of 1995].

22. (1) The Company and every approved enterprise which imports any materials, articles or manufactured goods into a free zone with any benefit in respect of Customs duty under this Act shall—

- (a) cause such materials, articles or goods to be marked or otherwise identified in such manner as may be required by the Comptroller;
- (b) maintain such records in such form and containing such particulars of the various materials, articles or goods imported into or exported from a free zone, or used in any process of manufacture or manipulation which takes place within a free zone, as may be required by the Comptroller, in Regulations made under the Customs Act;
- (c) submit to the Comptroller at such times and in such form and containing such particulars as he may require, a report of receipts, deliveries and disposal of such materials, articles or goods and the quantity and descriptions of the manufactured goods;
- (d) permit the Comptroller at all reasonable times, to inspect the records relating to those materials, articles, or manufactured goods;
- (e) permit the Comptroller at all reasonable times to have access to any factory, warehouse, assembly plant or other premises under the control of the approved enterprise, in order to examine any such materials, articles or goods manufactured therein, and to satisfy himself of the accuracy of the particulars in relation to any such materials, articles or goods.

(2) Where the Comptroller inspects records, materials, articles or manufactured goods pursuant to this section and discovers that there is a deficiency in any such materials, articles or goods, the Comptroller shall charge the approved enterprise the Customs duty payable on such deficiency, at the rates prevailing at the date of discovery.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where the Comptroller is satisfied that the deficiency was caused by reasonable wastage or unavoidable breakage, leakage or other accident, he shall not charge any Customs duty on the deficiency of these goods or articles.

(4) Where the Comptroller is satisfied that duty is payable under this section he shall request the approved enterprise by notice in writing to pay such duty within thirty days of the issue of the notice, and the approved enterprise shall comply with the request.

(5) The duties of the approved enterprise under this section and the rights of the Comptroller apply to goods manufactured in the free zone as they apply to materials, articles or goods imported into the free zone.

22A. (1) A Director whose interest is likely to be affected whether directly or indirectly by a decision of the Board on any matter whatsoever, shall disclose the nature of his interest at the first meeting of the Board at which he is present after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge.

Directors to declare interest.
[33 of 1995].

(2) A disclosure under subsection (1), shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board and after the disclosure the member making it shall not vote on the matter and unless the Board otherwise directs, shall not be present or take part in the deliberations of any meeting when the matter is being discussed or decided by the Board.

(3) For the purpose of this Act, a director holds an indirect interest in a company or undertaking where his spouse, parent, child, brother or sister or the parent, child, brother or sister of his spouse, holds a direct interest in that company or undertaking.

Restriction on disposal of articles imported with Customs duty concessions. [33 of 1995 4 of 1997].

23. (1) In this section “sell” includes give away or otherwise dispose of.

(2) Neither the Company nor an approved enterprise may use any article imported into a free zone with any benefit in respect of Customs duty under this Act for purposes other than those of an approved activity.

(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5) and section 18(4)(a), neither the Company nor an approved enterprise shall sell any article referred to in subsection (2) for purposes other than those of the approved activity.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), in the case of an assignment of an approved enterprise, the approved enterprise may sell any article referred to in subsection (2) to the assignee of the enterprise to be used in a free zone for the purposes for which any such article was imported into that free zone.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Company or an approved enterprise may sell an article referred to in subsection (2) in such circumstances, other than those referred to in subsection (4), as the Minister may approve.

Manufacture or manipulation in a free zone. [33 of 1995 4 of 1997].

24. (1) Before any goods manufactured, assembled, mixed or otherwise manipulated in a free zone are permitted entry into the Customs territory, and such goods or materials used in the manufacture or manipulation are subject to Customs duty, the approved enterprise engaged in the manufacture or manipulation of such goods shall obtain the written approval of the Company.

(2) Any approval under this section shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Company may impose, and to such Bye-laws as may be made pursuant to this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding section 23(3), an approved enterprise engaged in activities involving international trading in products may, with the written approval of the Company, sell the products which are the subject of such trading activities, into the Customs territory, save that the approval shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Company may impose and to such Bye-laws as may be made pursuant to this Act.

(4) Notwithstanding section 33(2)—

- (a) before any services are permitted to be exported or provided for any person in the Customs territory from a free zone, the approved enterprise engaged in the export or provision of such services shall obtain the written approval of the Company;
- (b) the proportionate part of the sales and profits of the approved enterprise, in respect of any services exported or provided for any person in the Customs territory from a free zone shall be subject to income tax, business levy, or any other tax in respect of sales, receipts, profits or gains.

25. The President may make Regulations for the purposes of this Act and such Regulations may prescribe allowances or deductions which may, having regard to the extent to which Trinidad and Tobago citizens or materials contribute to the ultimate value of any goods, be made in assessing the Customs duty on goods which have entered the Customs territory from a free zone.

Allowances for Trinidad and Tobago citizens or materials.
[33 of 1995].

26. (1) Where it appears to the Company that any goods or property have been abandoned in a free zone for a period exceeding six months, the Company may dispose of such goods or property whether by destruction, sale or otherwise and in the case of disposal by sale, shall apply the proceeds of such sale against any fees or other expenses incurred in connection with those goods or property or such disposal.

Disposal of goods abandoned in a free zone.

(2) Where any balance remains after the settling of the fees and expenses pursuant to subsection (1), that balance may, if claimed within three months of the date of the disposal, and if the Company is satisfied that the claimant was the owner of the goods disposed of or is entitled thereto, be paid to the claimant, but where there is no claimant for the proceeds of any such disposal by sale, such proceeds shall be paid into and become part of the funds of the Company.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) shall be construed as authorising the sale or the disposal of any goods for use in the Customs territory other than in such circumstances and on such terms as the Minister and the Comptroller may approve.

Goods not to be taken into or stored in a free zone. [33 of 1995].

27. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision contained in this Act, the following goods shall not be taken into or stored in any free zone:

- (a) firearms and ammunition, other than by members of the Trinidad and Tobago Police Service or the Customs and Excise Division or the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force or by security guards employed in the course of their duties, or by such other persons as may be authorised by the Company; or
- (b) petroleum, dangerous explosives, inflammable materials, hazardous cargoes and oil fuels other than in such quantities and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed or permitted by the Company.

(2) Any person who knowingly or recklessly contravenes this section is guilty of an offence.

Goods brought from free zone into Customs territory. [33 of 1995].

Ch. 78:01.
Ch. 75:06.

27A. (1) Notwithstanding any written law to the contrary, where goods are brought from a free zone into the Customs territory—

- (a) the goods shall be deemed to be imported for purposes of the Customs Act and the Value Added Tax Act, at the time at which the entry of goods under the Customs Act is effected;
